

10 GREAT WAYS YOU WILL LOVE LIVING IN PETERBOROUGH

With its unique blend of rural, urban and lakeside living, MSN Canada Travel recently listed Peterborough as one of “Canada’s Most Secretly Awesome Cities” and all it takes is a quick look around to realize why

1

SUPERIOR VALUE

Why pay the sky high real estate prices in the Greater Toronto Area when you can opt for Peterborough’s greater value and save thousands?

2

CLOSE KNIT COMMUNITY

Peterborough is a friendly, neighbourly community with a vibrant offering of local cuisine, arts, culture, festivals and annual events for folks of all ages.

3

EXCELLENT EDUCATION

Learning opportunities abound from elementary and high school up to local post-secondary institutions such as Trent University, Fleming College and Seneca College.

4

MUSIC & ENTERTAINMENT

Peterborough has one of the liveliest music scenes in Canada from its popular nightclubs to its free Musicfest concerts outdoors at Del Crary Park.

5

HEALTHCARE

The area is home to many health care facilities including Peterborough Regional Health Centre (PRHC) which has an extensive range of services and is the region’s largest employer.

6

A BALANCED LIFESTYLE

Providing the perfect balance of urban convenience and outdoor activities, Peterborough invites you to live, work and play without ever leaving home.

7

WELL - CONNECTED

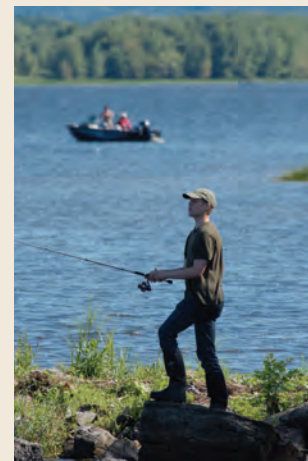

The average commute in Peterborough is just 22 minutes plus Toronto is just 90 minutes away and will be even closer once the new 407 extension opens.

8

NATURE PURE & SIMPLE

Rivers and streams, lake and beaches, forest and trails -- Peterborough and the Kawarthas boast an amazing abundance of natural attractions for families to explore and enjoy.

9

SPORTS & RECREATION

Peterborough hosts a wealth of recreational opportunities from swimming, fishing or skating on the Trent Canal to hockey and lacrosse at the Peterborough Memorial Centre.

10

SHOPPING & DINING

Downtown shops, big box stores, and retail centres offers big city selection while Peterborough’s country markets and restaurants promise something to suit every taste.

